JUNIOR WORLD CONFECTIONERY CHAMPIONSHIP

SIGEP 2011 will continue the constant determined commitment to involving the new generations of master confectioners and pastry cooks. For this reason, a new international event is therefore being launched, the World Confectionery Championship reserved for under-23 year old youngsters, organized by Rimini Fiera along with three confectionery/pastry icons, such as Livia Chiriotti, Iginio Massari and Roberto Rinaldini, who will be the chairman of the Championship.

The contestants will be young confectioners/pastry cooks from ten nations, with teams made up of a pair of confectioners/pastry cooks, a captain and a team manager. The event will be coordinated by a Development Committee whose current members, as well as Rimini Fiera, are Accademia Maestri Pasticceri Italiani (Academy of Master Confectioners), CastAlimenti, Conpait, and Pasticceria Internazionale magazine.

The panel of judges will be chaired by Academy Chairman Giovanni Pina and completed by the team managers and captains of the individual teams competing, as well as four internationally famous pastry chefs. An overall total of 26 judges, with Honorary Chairman Iginio Massari.
